Rod Thurber

Rod Thurber is a CPHIMS-CA and Prince 2 Practitioner certified Senior Consultant. With over 20 years experience in Healthcare IT Service Delivery in 24 x7 organizations, Rod has a wealth of experience ranging across community and tertiary hospitals, clinics, provincial service delivery organizations, private practice, and administration. For the last 14 years, he has led multiple projects involving the upgrade and replacement of key eHealth components and the introduction of services into complex eHealth architectures, with a focus on organizational and client stakeholder engagement.

Rod has developed expertise across multiple clinical domains focusing on clinical system integration and deployment and is a Healthcare Interoperability Subject Matter Expert, he is fully informed on the current interoperability architectures and data source systems.