

Knut Rodne

Knut is currently Director of Change Management at OntarioMD, a subsidiary of Ontario Medical Association. He is a seasoned manager and change management lead with experience from complex change initiatives in a wide range of industries in both Europe and North America. Knut holds a Master of Production and Quality Engineering from Norwegian University of Science and Technology located in Trondheim, Norway, and is an accredited Project Management Professional (PMP) and holds an Advanced Change Management certification from Prosci.