

Nurses: Extending Care Through Telehealth

Paper Authors:

Margarita Loyola,
Mya Aylott, Lisa Saffarek,
Maryah Allen, Mika Moric

Presenter:

Lisa Saffarek RN, BScN

Vancouver Island, British Columbia

viha.ca

Vancouver Island, British Columbia

viha.ca

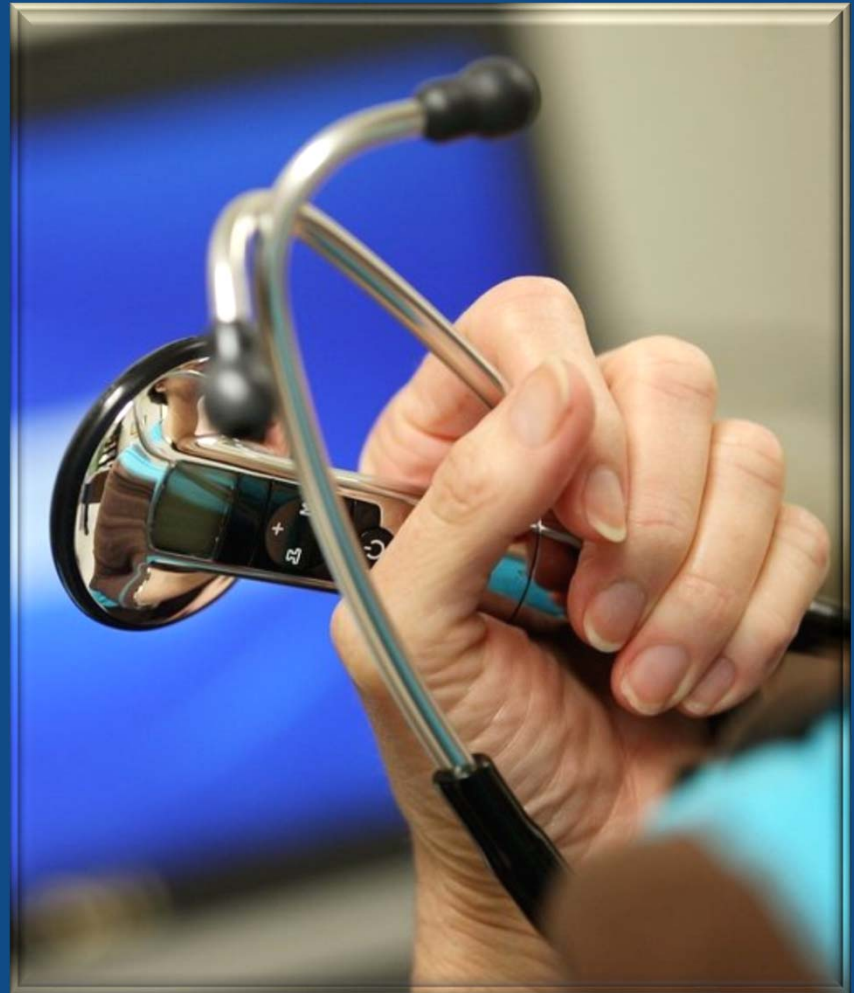

viha.ca

Island Health Telehealth

Diversity of Nursing Roles in Telehealth

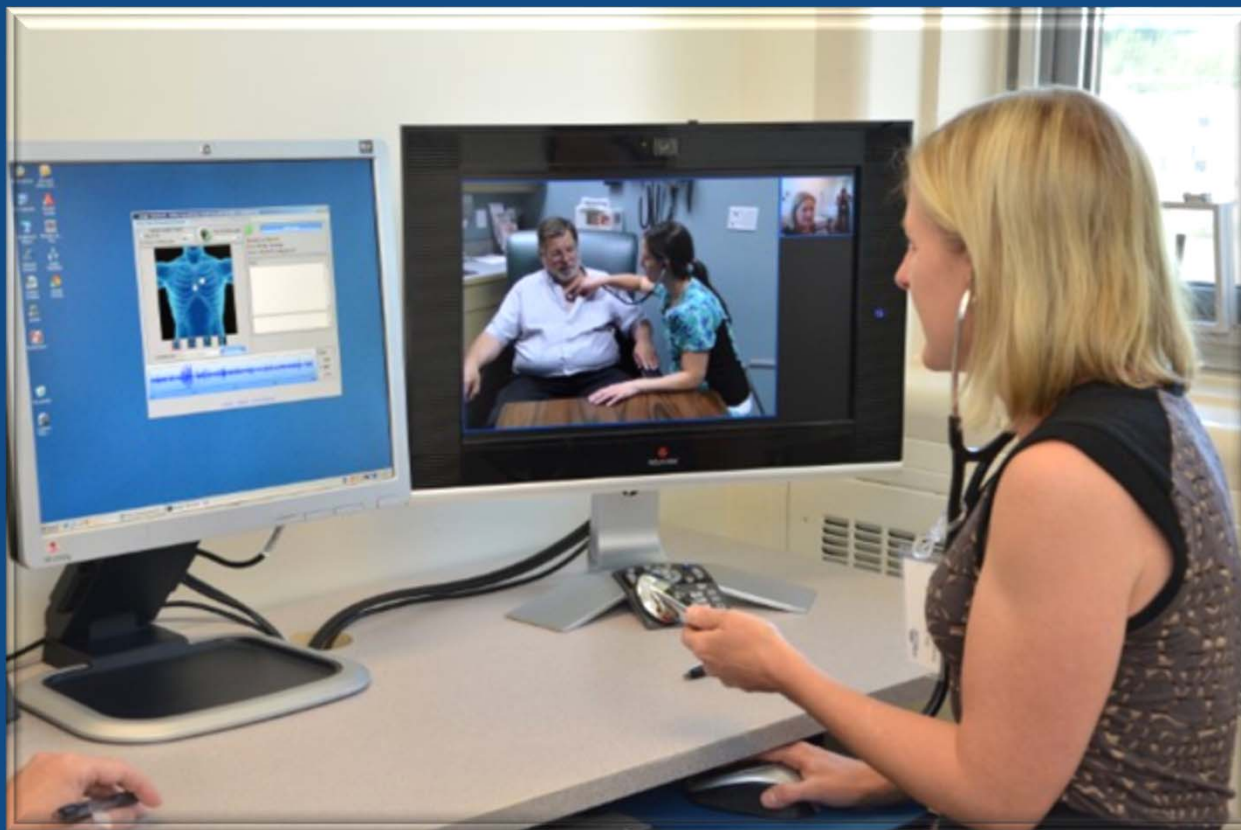

Seniors Health

Seniors Health

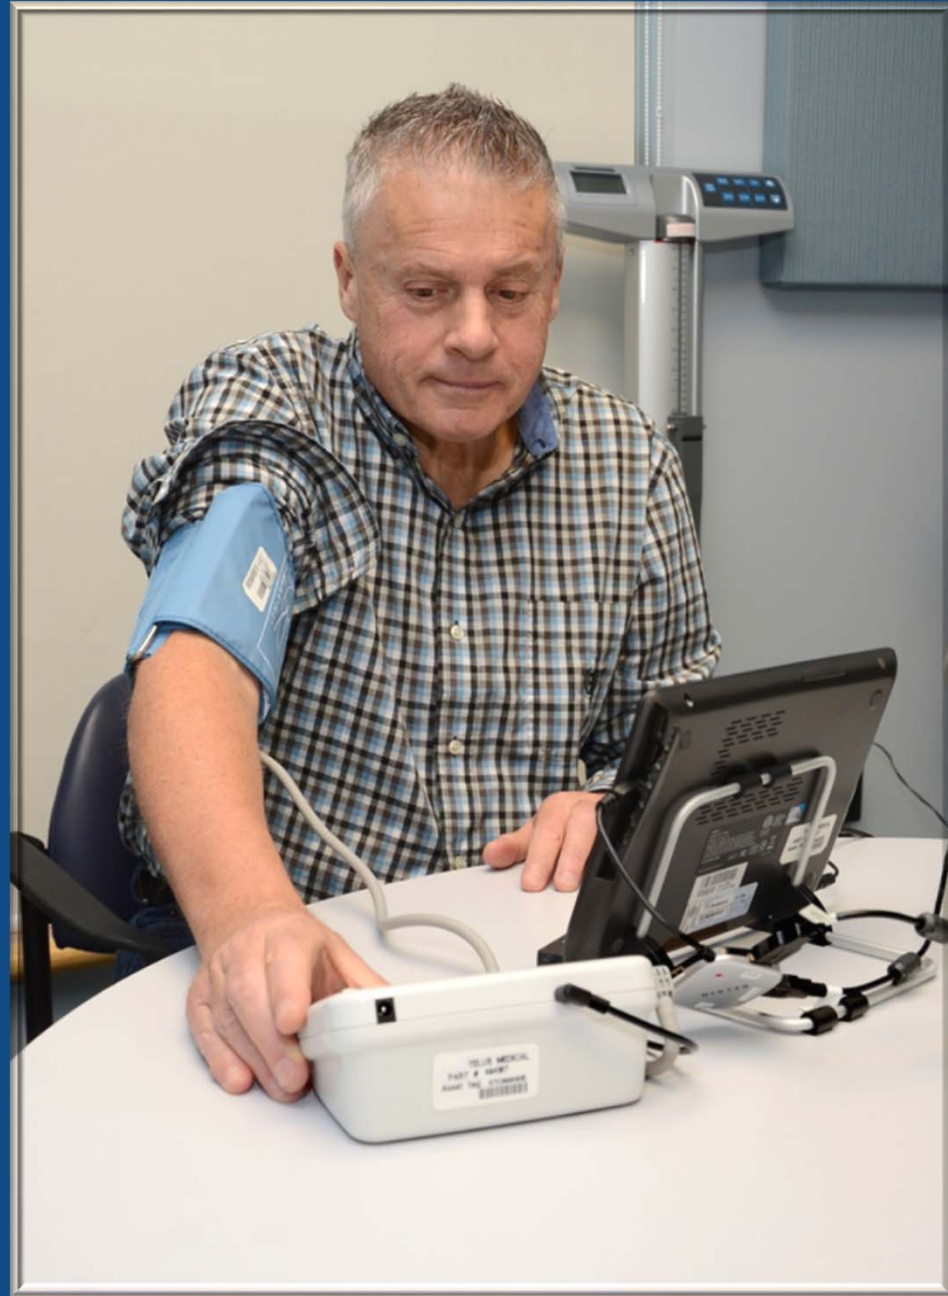

Cardiology

Primary Care Delivery

Home Health Monitoring: Remote Monitoring of Clients living with Heart Failure

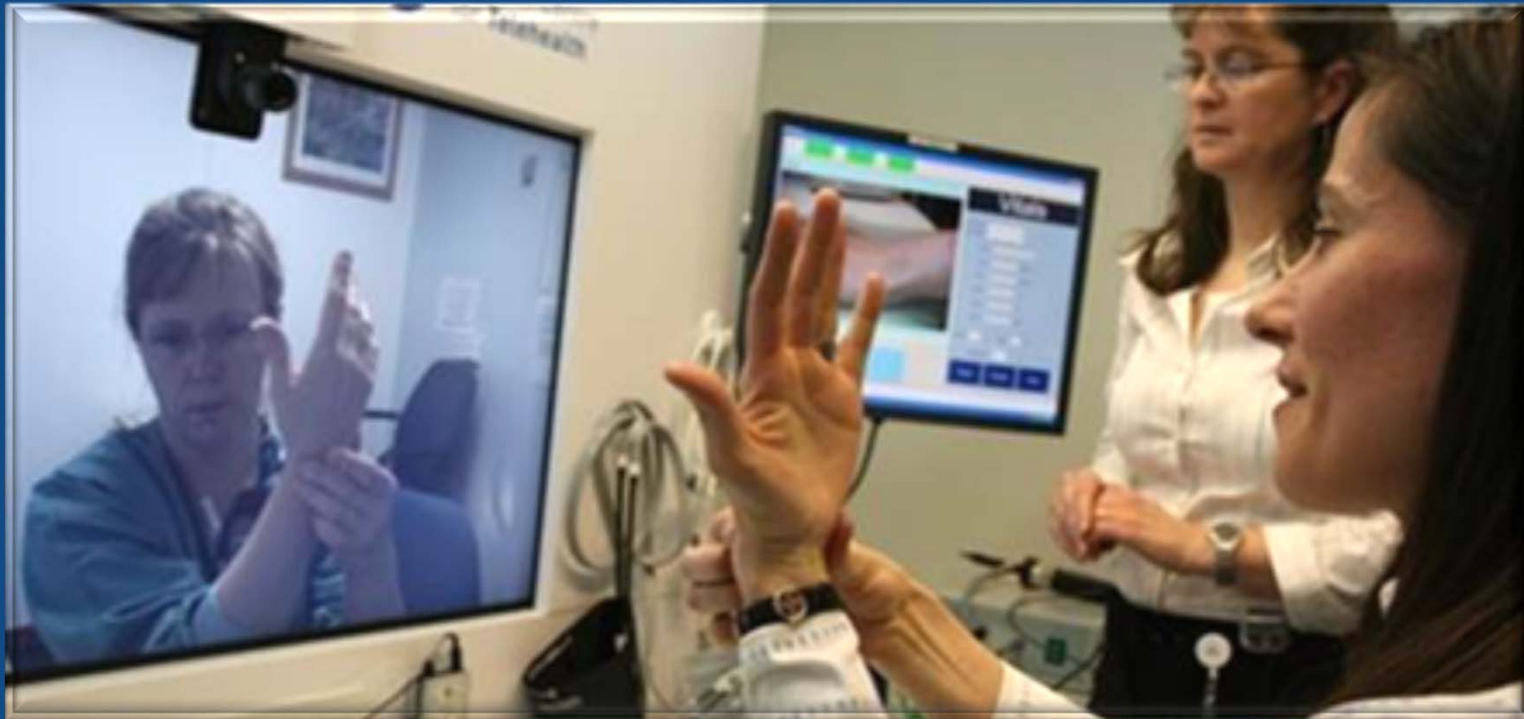

Home Health Monitoring

Impact of Nursing for Telehealth Clients

Telehealth Impacting Nurses

Reductions in Patient
Transfers:

TeleSpeech
Pathology

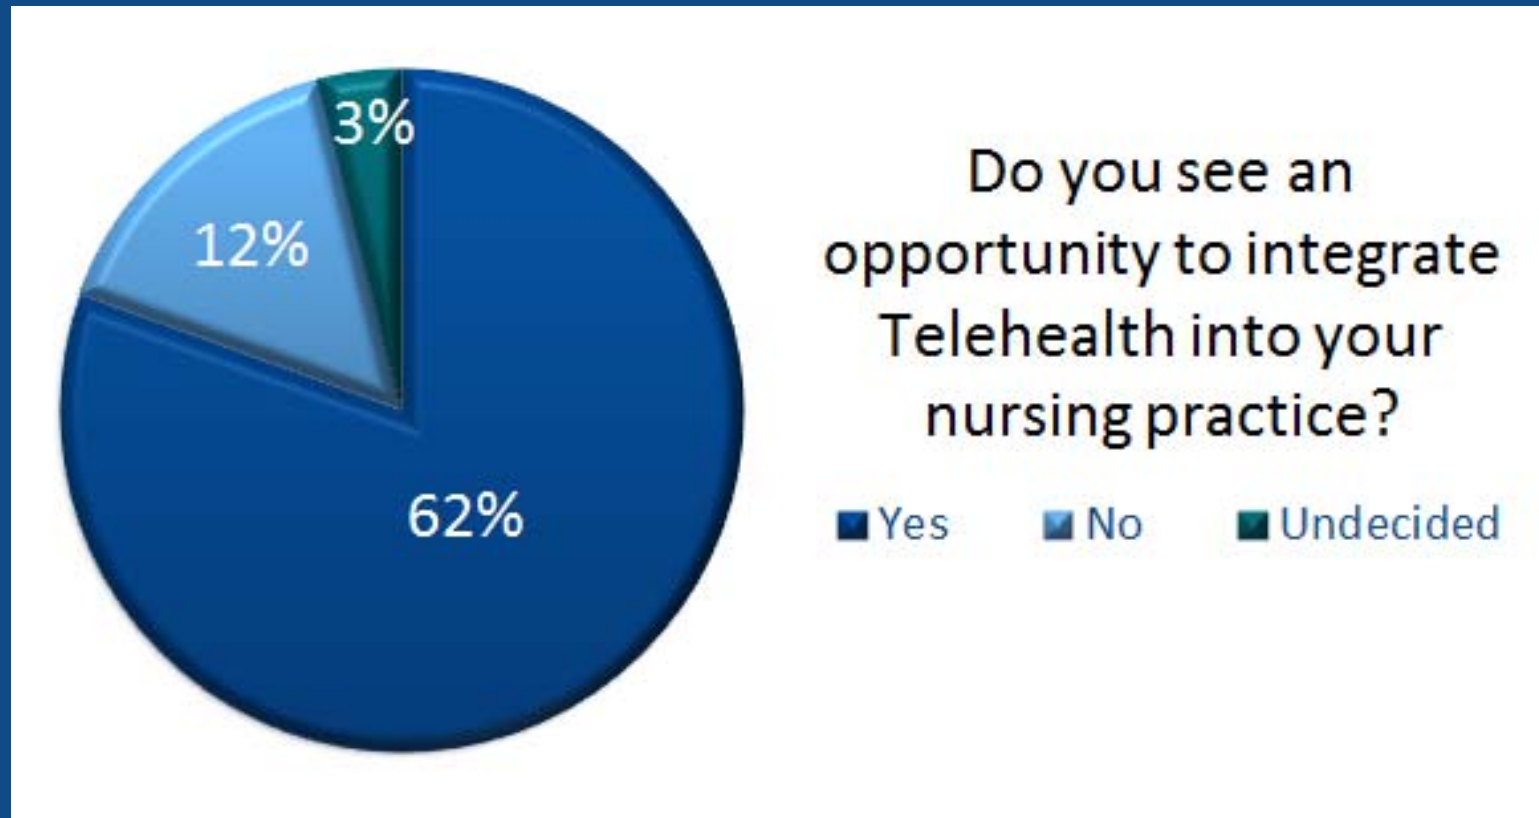

Nursing Perspectives on Telehealth

Island Health 2014 Telehealth Survey

- 200 survey respondents
- 53 of the respondents were nurses
- 40% of the nurses who responded had Telehealth experience

Telehealth Survey Results

Challenges of integrating Telehealth to Nursing Practice

Opportunities for Expansion

viha.ca

Using Telehealth in the home: Home & Community Care Evolving

“What I like most about Telehealth is the improvement in the ‘patient journey’ across the Island.

It saves our complex, chronically ill patients a lot of travel time, money and energy to be able to access specialty care in their own community”

-Island Health Nurse

Thank you!

island health Telehealth:

Living Our Values by enabling access and removing barriers to quality care

www.viha.ca/telehealth

Questions ?

